

CERTIFICATE OF COMPLETION OF STAFF DEVELOPMENT

The Certificate of Completion of Staff Development authorizes the holder to teach English Language Development (ELD) and Specially Designed Academic Instruction Delivered in English (SDAIE) to English Learner (EL) Students, both within the subject matter content of the holder's basic credential.

General Requirements for a Certificate of Completion of Staff Development

An applicant must satisfy all of the following requirements:

1. Hold one of the following:
 - a) a valid California teaching credential requiring a bachelor's degree and a program of professional preparation, including student teaching
 - b) a valid Clear or Professional Clear California Full-Time Designated Subjects Teaching Credential, provided the applicant also possesses a bachelor's degree and has passed the California Basic Educational Skills Test (CBEST)
2. Verify permanent status (see "Terms and Definitions") on form CL-823VPS
3. Verify completion of the appropriate staff development program (see "Options and Certificate Authorizations" below) using form 41-395 (not required for those who completed their training through the California Teacher Association)
4. Submit completed application (form 41-4) and appropriate fee ($45.00)

Options and Certificate Authorizations

There are three options to qualify for the certificate. The teacher's authorization will be based on the method used to qualify for the certificate, and the authorization of the holder's teaching credential. Options 2 and 3 have additional requirements that must be met.

Option 1:

- Complete an initial 45-hour Commission-approved staff development program

The Certificate Authorization for Option 1 Allows the Holder to Provide:

- Specially designed academic instruction in English (SDAIE) to students in the subject and grade authorized by the teacher's basic credential
- English language development (ELD) in a departmentalized class within the subject matter content in the grade authorized by the teacher's basic credential. This allows the teacher to incorporate ELD methodology during instruction but does not allow teaching of an ELD class

Option 2:

- Complete an initial 45-hour Commission-approved staff development program, plus complete a subsequent 45-hour Commission-approved program (within three years of completion of the initial 45-hour program)

The Certificate Authorization for Option 2 Allows the Holder to Provide:

- Specially designed academic instruction in English (SDAIE) to students in the subject and grade authorized by the teacher's basic credential
- English language development (ELD) in a departmentalized class within the subject matter content in the grade authorized by the teacher's basic credential. This allows the teacher to incorporate ELD methodology during instruction but does not allow teaching of an ELD class
- English language development (ELD) in a self-contained classroom within the subject matter content

Additional Requirements for Option 2:

- Hold a valid California credential that authorizes teaching in a self-contained classroom (General or Standard Elementary, Multiple Subject, or Special Education Teaching Credential)

Note: The holder of an SB 1969 Certificate of Completion of Staff Development qualifies for a Certificate of Completion of Staff Development by completing a subsequent 45-hour Commission-approved SB 395 program noted under “Option 2.” Once that program is completed, the individual may apply for the Certificate of Completion of Staff Development by following the directions listed under “General Requirements” on page 1 of this leaflet. The applicant’s SB 1969 Certificate must be on file with the Commission.

Option 3:

- Complete an initial 45-hour Commission-approved staff development program, plus have nine years of full-time teaching experience (see "Terms and Definitions"), and experience or training in teaching English learners prior to participation in the staff development program (see "Additional Requirements for Option 3" below)

The Certificate Authorization for Option 3 Allows the Holder to Provide:

- Specially designed academic instruction in English (SDAIE) to students in the subject and grade authorized by the teacher’s basic credential
- English language development (ELD) in a departmentalized class within the subject matter content in the grade authorized by the teacher’s basic credential. This allows the teacher to incorporate ELD methodology during instruction but does not allow teaching of an ELD class
- English language development (ELD) in a self-contained classroom within the subject matter content

Additional Requirements for Option 3:

- Hold a valid California credential that authorizes teaching in a self-contained classroom (General or Standard Elementary, Multiple Subject, or Special Education Teaching Credential)
- Submit self-verification of nine years of full-time teaching experience (see "Terms and Definitions") on form CL-823VPS
- Have experience or training in teaching English learners prior to participation in the staff development program by completing one of the following:
 1. Passage of one section of the Language Development Specialist Examination (for certificate purposes, the passing score is valid indefinitely), or
 2. Passage of either the Culture or Methodology Component of a Bilingual Certificate of Competence Examination (for certificate purposes, the passing score is valid indefinitely), or
 3. Passage of Tests 1-5 of the CLAD/BCLAD Examinations (for certificate purposes, the passing score is valid indefinitely), or
 4. Two years of full-time equivalent experience teaching English learners using ELD and/or SDAIE methods. The experience must meet the definition of full-time teaching experience (see "Terms and Definitions") and may be part of the total nine-year period, or
 5. Thirty or more hours of prior training in any aspect of ELD and/or SDAIE. This may be either staff development, or course work taken at an institute of higher education. If taken at an institution of higher education, it may be course work applicable toward a bachelor’s or higher degree or professional development courses.

Period of Validity

The Certificate will remain valid for as long as the basic teaching credential is valid. The Certificate does not need to be renewed.

Program Completion Dates

The initial 45-hour program must be completed prior to January 1, 2008, and the subsequent 45-hour program must be completed within three years of completion of the initial program.

Terms and Definitions

Full-time teaching experience: a minimum of four hours a day on a daily basis unless the minimum statutory attendance requirements for the students served is less

Permanent Status: as of January 1, 1999, the teacher’s employment status was one of the following:

- a permanent employee of a school district, a county office of education, or a school administered under the authority of the Superintendent of Public Instruction, or

- was previously a permanent employee and then was employed in any California public school district within 39 months of the previous permanent status, or
- has been employed in a school district with an average daily attendance of not more than 250 for at least two years
